Dear Jack:

It was good to see you at The Boar's Head Inn and to have had the opportunity and pleasure of being associated with the third Charlottesville Conference for the Executive Officers Group. As you know, however, the purposes for having such a meeting do not end with the call for adjournment.

By concept and design last week's sessions aimed at exploring four areas of national concern which will, in all probability, be with us for some time to come. In addition, like the earlier conferences, this one was geared to be of direct and practical importance to the members of the Group. I would, therefore, like to hear from you about how well the meeting related to your responsibilities as you see them along with your observations, both particular and general, on the specific topics covered.

It will be good to have your thoughts.

Sincerely,

John M. McGwire
Vice President
